Mainland Company Tells of $607 Deal

VANCOUVER (CP)—A number of expensive rugs delivered to R. E. Sommers when he was provincial minister of lands and forests were alleged by the Crown Friday to have been paid for by one of the companies now facing charges in the Sommers bribery-conspiracy case.

Crown prosecutor Stewart McMorran introduced a statement from a Vancouver trading company executive that two large rugs and three mats to the value of $607 had been chosen at his establishment by the former minister and his wife in September, 1953.

The signed statement of Karnel Holat, partner in East India Traders Limited, of Vancouver, added they were subsequently delivered to Mr. Sommers at his Victoria home but paid for by cheque by Pacific Coast Services Limited.

The company is one of four charged in the case in which the crown alleges that the former minister and other individuals were involved in bribery and conspiracy in connection with the granting of forest management licences.

SIGNED BY SOMMERS

Another signed statement introduced by Mr. McMorran at Friday's preliminary hearing session was from Maurice A. Campbell, Victoria Cartage truck driver. He said he had delivered the rugs to the Sommers Forrest Avenue home Sept. 23, 1953, and got his work invoice signed by Mr. Sommers himself.

The invoice was filed as evidence in the case.

The battery of eight defence lawyers agreed not to contest these and other signed statements introduced by the prosecutor. Numbering 15 in all, they concerned the purchase by Mr. Sommers of a new car at Trail in 1954, two $500 bonds used in payment for the car, and delivery of certain registered mail to Mr. Sommers' Victoria home.

POSSIBLE WITNESSES

However, defence counsel J. R. Nicholson asked assurance that if the accused are committed for trial by Magistrate Oscar Orr, the defence retain the right to call as witnesses any or all of the persons from whom the Crown obtained the signed statements.

The city prosecutor agreed.

'Crazy' Greek Right

NICHOLAS CHRISTOFILAS

WASHINGTON (UP) — This is the story of Nick Christofilos, the "crazy Greek" inventor who wasn't so crazy after all.

Nick, a 34-year-old electrical engineer, in 1951 wrote to Berkeley, Calif., where scientists were building a 6,000,000,000-volt atomic furnace. Nick offered a few suggestions.

The scientists thought Nick's letter "a mess," but they answered him anyway. Nick shot back some more suggestions. This time they called him a "crazy Greek" and filed his letter.

A year later scientists at Brookhaven national laboratory announced discovery of "strong focusing," which would enable scientists to build a giant synchroton at a saving of $70,000,000.

The scientific world heaped praise on the inventors. Then in walked Nick. "I discovered it a year ago," he said.

The Berkeley scientists came up with Nick's letter. The Atomic Energy Commission gave him $10,000 in return for a license on his patent and a waiver of any legal action for infringement.

"And what happened to Nick?" someone asked. "We hired him," a Brookhaven official said.

Firemen Fatally Injured

NEW YORK (AP)—At least two firemen were fatally injured Friday night in the roaring collapse of a five-storey loft building that trapped four others.

The two were dug out by frantically working fellow firemen. Both at first were believed to be alive. Closer examination proved one to be dead, however, and the other died before reaching hospital.

FLOOR COLLAPSED

The missing four were members of the New York board of fire underwriters who were trapped with the two firemen when a floor collapsed in a mass of burning wreckage and shattered bricks.

"We have not given up hope," said Fire Commissioner Edward F. Cavanagh, Jr. "A hundred men will work at the scene around the clock, until we free or find the missing men."

SCREAMS, SHOUTS

Cavanagh said he heard "screams and shouts" from inside the building just after the collapse of the two upper storeys of the building.

Millions Made On Westcoast

CALGARY (CP)—The Borden energy commission learned Friday that promoters of Westcoast Transmission Co. Ltd. made millions of dollars by purchasing original stocks at five cents a share.

The information came out in cross-examination of company witnesses by commission counsel Arthur Pattillo of Toronto.

Under questioning, D. P. McDonald of Calgary, managing director of Westcoast, said 625,000 shares were distributed to the original backers of the pipeline.

SHARE COST CITED

Cost of the shares, at the time, was five cents. Outstanding stock was to go on sale to the public for $5 a share.

Mr. McDonald told the commission that initially 500,000 shares were divided. The shares generally went in 118,000 lots to four major promotion groups. E. A. Parkford of Los Angeles received 25,000 shares for his part in bringing the financial backers together.

GROUPS NAMED

The groups were Pacific Petroleums Limited, Frank L. McMahon and his group, Sunray Oil Corporation (now Sunray Mid-Continent Oil Company), and Eastman Dillon Union Securities and Company of New York.

"They were the original promoters of the company," Mr. McDonald said. ". . . This distribution of shares was a typical thing . . ."

VANCOUVER (CP) — A neatly-dressed bandit made off in an old model car with about $3,000 after holding up a suburban Royal Bank here Friday. It was the city's first bank holdup this year.

GEORGE PRESTON
. . . carries banner

Convention to appoint a federal Liberal candidate in Esquimalt-Saanich last night exploded when association president George Whittaker said the party had little chance of winning the local contest.

He made the comment before calling for nominations to carry the party's banner in the riding. His was the first name proposed.

HE WITHDRAWS

Mr. Whittaker withdrew in favor of a second person nominated, George Preston, 1319 Cordova Bay Road.

"I think there is little hope of the Liberal party, this time at least, winning this constituency," he told the meeting of some 50 people. The statement drew loud protest from almost everyone present.

"However, Liberalism is not a short-time proposition," he went on when the meeting quietened down. "I don't think we should make just a token display. We should build on the gains Mr. Fraser made last election."

Alistair Fraser, who represented the party in last year's federal election in Esquimalt-Saanich, was present but did not accept renomination.

BACK INTO FOLD

"If we make a gain, even though we don't win, Mr. Pearkes (Defence Minister George Pearkes) will know he has been opposed," Mr. Whittaker continued. "And eventually we will be able to bring this constituency back into the fold."

Immediate criticism came from Edward Botting of Colwood, who called on Mr. Whittaker to ask newspapermen present to delete his remarks from their notes.

"I think our candidate has a better chance than ever of winning the election," he said.

SENTIMENTS ECHOED

Other speakers echoed his sentiments, including secretary William Okell of Langford and Mr. Fraser.

"I have never before failed to help in 46 years as a Liberal," A. Derman, 511 Obed, told the meeting, "but when our president says we can't even win, how can he expect us to help th ecandidate?"

TWICE AS HARD

Replying, Mr. Whittaker apologized for his remarks and promised to work "twice as hard" for Mr. Preston.

"I can assure you it was not so much what I meant as the way I said it," he told the meeting.

'Canada Economy Tied to U.S. Tail'

PRINCE ALBERT, Sask. (BUP) — Prime Minister John Diefenbaker last night lambasted the former Liberal government for "tying the Canadian economy to the tail of the U.S.," thereby causing increased unemployment.

In the strongest speech of the young campaign, Mr. Diefenbaker said it was the Liberals "who placed all our eggs in one basket, strangling small business with their tight money policy."

Waving the now-famous government paper on unemployment, the prime minister said "This is what the Liberal government knew last year. Why did they not do something about it?"

"The last government failed to act when it was warned," he said, "and as a result there is so much unemployment today."

The prime minister said the figures were "grossly exaggerated" and added that the Conservative government would "start over on the problem."

"As long as I am prime minister," he said, "no man or woman will suffer as long as public works, and the money for them, will provide immediate relief."

Reason to Be Elected

Pearson Sticks To Peace Theme

HAMILTON, Ont., (BUP)—Lester B. Pearson last night emphasized his peace-making role in world affairs as a good reason to be elected to office.

He told a southern Ontario Liberal rally, which packed about 1,000 strong into a Hamilton school auditorium, that: "I can promise you one thing leadership—sincere and experienced leadership—in the greatest crusade of all, that for peace."

"As head of the government, I would have greater opportunities to accomplish more than I have ever been able to do before," he said.

His speech was rarely applauded, but there were even fewer interjections by hecklers, whom he ignored.

Pearson told the rally that "Jobs are the number one domestic problem" in Canada.

Youths Rally To Rebels

PADANG, Sumatra, Indonesia (UP) — The revolutionary colonels of central Sumatra whipped up popular and military support today for proclamation of an independent Indonesian central government at a rally of 15,000 youths.

The throng gave thunderous cheers to Lieut.-Col. Ahmad Hussein and his associates who have been dismissed by army headquarters in Jakarta for defying commands.

Act Will Block Blacklisting, Wage-Fixing in Education

* * *

Legislation designed to prevent school boards from fixing teachers' salaries and to stop teachers "blacklisting" school boards will be included in the new Public Schools Act, Education Minister Leslie Peterson said yesterday.

"I do not approve of the practice," he said.

"In the Public Schools Act I intend bringing in, there are provisions which I hope will prevent such a situation from occurring in the future," Mr. Peterson told the legislature.

SAME AS PICKETS

(Some 20 teaching areas in the province have now been named "no agreement areas" by teachers' associations when they fail to get a new wage contract signed with the school boards.

University tuition assistance "is a field in which the federal government should be called upon to take a more active part," the minister said. He suggested federal assistance could be in the form of the plan used for ex-vicemen after the war or a matching dollar-for-dollar grant for more scholarships.

NEW POSITION

Mr. Peterson said his departmental estimates this year provided for a new position—co-ordinator of teacher recruitment.

"It is intended that this will be a senior position in the department with a senior salary," he said, "and I think it is ample evidence of the priority that this government is giving to the question of teacher supply."

ALL ABOARD

With G. E. Mortimore

MAYORS, Chamber of Commerce officials and assorted boosters are running around eagerly to promote car-carrying aircraft, fast boats between Sidney and somewhere else, and other exciting transit services.

I'm no enemy of progress. They can put on rocket jitneys, mail-carrying seagulls or any worthwhile method of getting from here to there, and I won't say a word against them.

But they had better leave the midnight boat alone. Any time they attempt to cancel the night boat and replace it with some fancy new service, there will be big trouble.

I'm not alone in this sentiment. The friends of the midnight boat are numerous in these parts. The demonstration of 200 men and a cow against Premier Bennett will be as nothing compared to the riot that will burst out if they try to take our boat away.

* * *

There has been no official threat so far that the midnight service will end; but you hear the possibility whispered, sometimes by the same people who are planning helicopter buses or submarine freight between Ten Mile Point and False Creek.

You may not believe this, but I argue that the midnight boat is the fastest way to get from Victoria to Vancouver.

You step from downtown Victoria into the boat, snuggle down in clean linen for the night, and wake up in Vancouver. You don't have to spend an hour or so imprisoned in an airlines bus, or tire yourself out driving to Sidney or Nanaimo.

Some hours elapse on the voyage. But you never miss them, because a person has to sleep somewhere. What difference does it make if you sleep in your own bed or a CPR bed? A few dollars' difference, you might say. However, it also costs money to ride airline limousines, or to drive a roundabout route via Steveston, or Horseshoe Bay.

* * *

In addition to the convenience and comfort, that midnight boat offers a kind of spiritual bonus to the traveller. There is a special excitement in departing at midnight; a secret feeling of drama and conspiracy, as you walk the deck and see the neon signs of the harbor slip away and vanish.

Friends of the midnight boat are aware of these advantages. Unfortunately, some of these people, for one frivolous reason or other, choose to go across by air, or via Nanaimo.

The passenger list on the boat is fairly small just now. If they ever take the boat out of service, its friends will bitterly regret that they hadn't used it more often.

They will probably fly into a rage against the CPR. But it will be their own fault. All too often, we don't appreciate things until they have gone.

Campaign Highlights

'John' Follows Chorus Line

VANCOUVER (CP) — John [illegible] Conservative member of the last parliament for Vancouver-Burrard and the man who coined the party's "follow John" slogan in the June 10 election, was renominated with the help of a male chorus line.

The chorus bounced on stage to the tune of "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow," each member bearing a letter of the candidate's name.

The 100 delegates shouted "no" three times as the chairman asked if other names would be put forward for the candidatures at the March 31 election.

* * *

PRINCE ALBERT, Sask. (CP)—Chill weather and warm handshakes in his home town greeted John Diefenbaker Friday as he arrived to receive the Progressive Conservative nomination in his own constituency for the March 31 election.

* * *

CALGARY (CP) — Douglas Jung of Vancouver, leader of the Canadian Young Conservatives Association, predicts the Conservatives will win 140 seats in the federal election March 31.

Mr. Jung, MP for Vancouver Centre, said there has been a "tremendous upsurge" in interest in the Conservative party.

* * *

HAMILTON, Ont. (BUP) — Former health minister Paul Martin last night hailed his party leader as Canada's "solid voice for peace in our time."

Martin, who spoke before Lester Pearson at the leader's campaign - launching address, said that Canadian prosperity was "dependent on the preservation of peace."

"No one man has made a more steady and substantial contribution to the peace of the world than Mike Pearson," Mr. Martin said.

* * *

HAMILTON, Ont. (BUP)—The choice before the electorate is between the "worn-out" Liberal machine and the Conservative program of progress and development, Justice Minister E. Davie Fulton said yesterday.

Fulton outlined the Conservative program as: development of the north, co-operation with the provinces to develop all areas, redress of the imbalance of trade, and the giving to Canadians of a larger share in the control and benefits of Canadian resources.

* * *

WINNIPEG (BUP)—Senator John Connolly, chairman of the national Liberal campaign committee, said yesterday his party could not be held responsible for the present economic recession.

And he told a press conference that a report that former trade minister C. D. Howe was soliciting Liberal trade funds in the United States was "an unfounded rumor."

* * *

OTTAWA (BUP) — Further details of Prime Minister John Diefenbaker's campaign itinerary, covering tours of the Atlantic provinces and Quebec in the next two weeks, were released yesterday by Conservative party headquarters.

The prime minister, with Mrs. Diefenbaker and his staff, will spend March 4 to 6 in Ontario, March 7 in Manitoba, March 8 in Alberta and March 10 to 13 in British Columbia.

Esquimalt Police Consider Offer

The new offer, made at a meeting last night, was not disclosed, but Reeve A. C. Wurtele said an attempt was being made to apply the Jackson formula.

That would indicate a 5 per cent boost. The union, asking 21 per cent, will discuss the offer Wednesday.

Car Driver Careless In Street Fatality

Driver of a car involved in a street fatality last Dec. 2, Mrs. Herta Bishop, 1243 Rudlin, was found guilty of careless driving following trial in city police court yesterday.

She was remanded to Tuesday for sentence.

Accused was driving west on Pandora, shortly after 5 p.m., at the time of the accident.

A pedestrian, Charles L. Sheats, 65, of 1140 Queens, "suddenly" appeared in front of her car, she said, and she applied her brakes immediately. Her car struck the elderly man in the crosswalk on the west side of Vancouver.

Police said the car left 17-foot tire burns on the road.

"You should have seen that pedestrian," Magistrate Henry C. Hall told her.

In a brief session of Esquimalt police court yesterday James Thomas Evans, RCN, pleaded guilty to impaired driving. He was fined $250 and his driver's licence suspended for one year.

Police said Evans' car struck a parked vehicle on Wollaston about 7.20 p.m. Thursday.

Roy Alexander Seabrook, no fixed address, was remanded to today for sentence after pleading guilty to theft under $50 value.

City police court was told accused had stolen a paper bag, containing nine boxes of cut mixed peel, from A. P. Slade (Victoria) Ltd., 95 Esquimalt. When he learned what the bag contained, police said, he threw it away.

His arrest followed finding of his unemployment insurance card beside the bag.

"I had been drinking down that way," accused said. "I don't know the first thing about it."

Clara Palmer, Ste. 17, 1106 Balmoral, was fined $25 and $2.50 costs for failing to file an income tax return for 1956.

In Oak Bay court Howard George Arthur Hill, 250 Linden, was sentenced to three months definite and one year indeterminate in the Young Offenders' Unit, Oakalla, for theft of a case of beer and quantity of pop bottles, valued at under $50.

Mount View Students Pay Tribute to Dead Classmate

Inquest has been set for Monday at 10 a.m. at McCall's funeral home into Thursday's traffic death of sportsman-schoolboy James Alfred Sheard.

The 16-year-old boy, student at Mount View High School and manager of the school basketball team, was fatally injured at 6.20 p.m. Thursday when he ran across the new Island Highway at Wascana, into the path of an east-bound car.

It is understood the boy suffered severe neck and head injuries. He was pronounced dead on arrival at St. Joseph's Hospital, where he was rushed by Saanich police.

Jimmie Sheard was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Albert H. Sheard of 65 Lotus. At the time of the accident he was returning home with three schoolmates following an after-school basketball practice.

Driver of the car involved was Allan W. Gray, 2803 Admirals.

Schoolmates at Mount View paid tribute to the boy in an article written for the school newspaper, out yesterday.

"A feeling of deep sadness pervaded our school this morning," it read, "when we learned of the sudden and untimely end of one of our best-liked and pleasantest schoolmates.

"Everybody in our school who knew Jimmie (and nearly everybody did) found him a good sport, a cheerful companion, a valuable friend, and a hard-working student."

Agreement Broken, Says CPR

Talks Break Down In Rail Dispute

MONTREAL (CP)—Efforts by the Canadian Pacific Railway and labor representatives to settle the diesel firemen dispute suddenly broke off Friday, with the company charging that the union had repudiated signed agreements.

The company said it is referring the issue to Labor Minister Starr "for appropriate action."

The union—the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen (CLC)—termed the breakdown a suspension of negotiations.

It said it will go before the Canadian railway board of adjustment to seek clarification of the agreement the company and union signed in January, 1957, to end a strike caused by the firemen's dispute.

The strike occurred when the CPR tried to enforce its decision to discontinue using firemen on diesels in freight and yard services.

A nine-day tie-up of the CPR's transcontinental services ended when a royal commission to investigate the dispute was set up. The commission's ruling was not to be binding on either side.

The Kellock commission ruled last week that firemen are not required aboard freight and yard diesels. Firemen on diesel passenger trains and on steam-powered locomotives were not involved in the dispute.

New efforts to settle the dispute started Wednesday.

Harmful Competition

RECENT developments in disputes between teachers and school boards in different districts accentuate doubt as to the wisdom of the system provided by statute for the determination of salary scales. Having regard for the welfare of education in the province as a whole, the system appears capable of causing serious harm to some of the schools due to factors over which their trustees have lost control because of the way in which the wage settlement formula works in practice.

Under the act the provincial department of education sets basic wage scales for teachers and leaves the school boards at liberty to build higher on this foundation as they see fit, but with responsibility for all expenditure above the basic minimum thrown onto the local taxpayers. In theory this may appear to be a reasonable way of taking care of such considerations as isolation, variations in cost of living in different regions of the province, and so forth. In practice, however, it throws upon local boards a burden of responsibility which many of them are not equipped to handle.

Worse than that, the effect of this month's negotiations and arbitration in various districts is to put boards paying higher salaries in a position, unsought though it may be, to out-bid other boards for teachers, always in short supply. A striking example of this is provided by what has happened in North Vancouver and Surrey, two parts of the same economic region where a common scale of wages for teachers would seem appropriate. In North Vancouver a pay increase of 13.5 per cent has been arrived at by mutual agreement. In Surrey an increase of 7.9 per cent has been awarded by arbitration.

It is only natural to expect that teachers will favor districts like North Vancouver and Nanaimo where large increases have been won, at the expense of others where the fixing of scales has been taken out of the boards' hands, but not the responsibility of staffing their schools.

This situation creates the strongest of several arguments in favor of province-wide salary scales, in the determination of which the government would be the only negotiating party on the employers' side. It would involve surrender of part of the board's jurisdiction, but in view of what has occurred this year few of them would be likely to put up a fight against that. Not to be forgotten in this connection either are the municipal councils and their taxpayers, who must pay for the outcome of negotiations over which they have virtually no control.

He Is the Stronger Man

MR. PAUL MARTIN, the former minister of health, is reported to have told his Ontario constituents that the Liberals should be returned to office in order that as prime minister Mr. Lester Pearson could represent Canada at a summit conference. The implication is that his long acquaintance with external affairs would give him an advantage over Mr. Diefenbaker. In fact the opposite seems more likely.

Mr. Pearson's reputation at UN and other international boards, deserved though it was, evolved mainly from his position as conciliator. As the foreign minister until last June of a lesser power —and there is no use pretending Canada is a major influence—this role suited his character and his capacities, and he exploited these well. For Russia however conciliation means only one thing — appeasement. The need in summit negotiation with the Soviet Union is for a strong personality who can compel attention. Stalin was wont to respect Churchill because the latter could be as dynamic as himself; Nikita Khrushchev is likely to be of the same genre. This is where the demonstrated weight of Mr. Diefenbaker would be impressive.

There is no certainty that a summit conference will be held, even if sentiment is pointing that way. The preliminaries are only being feinted, with each side manoeuvring for advantage. But allowing that it does take place there is even less likelihood that Canada will be a direct participant. Assuming for the sake of Mr. Martin's argument that it was, however, the strength and debating skill of Mr. Diefenbaker more than offsets the international experience of Mr. Pearson.

A footnote could probably be added. Mr. Diefenbaker has proved his stature as a prime minister of first-rate quality, and it is prime ministers who attend summit conferences. By contrast Mr. Pearson is an unknown quantity as a prime minister, and politics has more than one example of a fine first lieutenant who was found wanting when he became commander in chief.

Mr. John Bassett

THE death in Montreal of Mr. John Bassett, senior, puts an end to one of the most colorful figures in Canadian journalism. A crusader with flaming spirit and Celtic eloquence, Mr. Bassett fought for those principles which are changeless in time and human circumstance. Though no man ever heard abuse coming from his lips, not many will forget the wit which seasoned the wisdom he brought to battle in the cause of what he deemed right. For nearly half a century he was a leading influence on The Gazette, of Montreal; rising from cub reporter to president of the company and chairman of its board of directors.

The late Mr. Bassett was endeared to the newspaper world in Canada by sterling personal qualities of integrity, kindliness and an embracing mind. His influence was much wider. While he influenced journalism from the paper he served so brilliantly, to direction of The Canadian Press and again as Canadian delegate to the Third Imperial Press Conference held in Australia, his advice was sought by governments and leaders in other spheres in the nation. He was beloved in the province of Quebec and in the city of Montreal in spite of contrary political convictions, and very highly respected by Canadian newspapermen.

Many have tried but few have depicted the complete charm of this self-effacing man who, though crippled after active service overseas — where he was commissioned in the field and decorated by Belgium—had such complete control over himself and a vibrant, overflowing flood of energy to turn into help for every worthwhile human cause. One questions if he ever had an enemy in the whole of his professional life.

To his son, Mr. John Bassett, junior, and members of the family, and to The Gazette faced with this sad loss The Daily Colonist extends its sympathy.

Interpreting the News:

Cypriot Tangle Difficult

By ED SIMON

Canadian Press Staff Writer

BRITISH Foreign Secretary Lloyd undertook his round of conferences with Greece and Turkey in the hope of persuading them to accept a compromise on the future of Cyprus.

Both countries took all-or-nothing positions. The Greeks insisted Cyprus must become part of their country. The Turks demanded partition into Greek and Turkish segments.

Like Prime Ministers Karamanlis of Greece and Menderes of Turkey, Lloyd was under pressure from extremists at home not to make concessions.

* * *

The conciliatory policies of Sir Hugh Foot since he took over from the militant Sir John Harding as governor have diminished terrorist activity on the island.

But there is a growing conviction that the lull will be temporary unless the problem is tackled at its roots.

Menderes and Karamanlis find their hands forced by nationalistic opposition parties and politically unfavorable conditions at home. Time has only served to intensify the differences of the contending parties.

* * *

Friell, the gifted cartoonist of London's Evening Standard, sums up the dilemma of Cyprus with an appropriate portrayal of Lloyd captioned by a verse adapted from the late Edward Lear:

"There was an old man with a beard,
Who said, "it it just as I feared,
Two Greeks and a priest,
And four Turks at least
Have all built their nests in my beard."

Lloyd has his own policy to thank for the "priest" in his diplomatic whiskers.

Britain's adamant refusal to negotiate with Archbishop Makarios, to whom the Greek Cypriots look for leadership, has complicated the issue ever since the archbishop was deported from the island two years ago.

* * *

The British decision to release Makarios from custody in the Seychelles Islands brought the resignation of the Marquess of Salisbury from the cabinet.

Other right-wing Tories, blaming the archbishop for the activities of the underground EOKA terrorists, are firm in their refusal to permit him to return to Cyprus.

Lloyd has been searching for a formula acceptable to all parties to bring peace to Cyprus. Success would rank as something close to a diplomatic miracle.

Problem of Today

Education or Recreation?

By K. B. SWINTON

Committee Chairman of the Canadian Conference on Education, which will open in Ottawa on Monday.

IS our educational system preparing our children for this kind of world? Perhaps it is a healthy sign that educational thought is going through a transition period of uncertainty and turmoil.

In the past 30 years, education in Canada has tended to move from a school or teacher centred era to one which we could perhaps describe as child-centred.

In some instances the authority of the school and the teachers was replaced by an anonymous pressure to "conform to the group." There seemed to be some confusion between "education" and "recreation." Some educators believed that schools should foster "social adjustment" rather than intellectual effort. Wherever this system has been tried, either in the United States or Canada, there doesn't seem to be any strong evidence that its products are any better adjusted, especially to the kind of world into which we are rapidly moving.

* * *

But this is no time for recriminations about any deficiencies of the system. The educators in this country cannot be blamed for providing the kind of education system that parents and society seemed to want. If the emphasis has been on training children for specific occupations, rather than education in the fundamentals, we should not be surprised. This is perhaps a natural outgrowth of a pioneer society where the urge was to become financially independent and make one's own way in life as soon as possible.

To what extent, then, should we return to intensive training in the fundamentals? Should we have paths of educational development where those with varying abilities are selected to follow certain courses of study? What can we do to provide qualified teachers in sufficient numbers to provide the high standards in education we will need? What can be done to improve the basic attitudes in the home?

* * *

These are some of the questions that will be debated at this first Canadian Conference on Education. There will be some 700 delegates from all parts of the country to consider these basic issues in education. They will represent not only the educators, teachers and professors, but people from every facet of Canadian society — farm organizations, labor unions, veterans, business and industry, women's organizations, parents, doctors and lawyers. In all, it is estimated they will represent some 2,000,000 Canadians. There will even be a Soviet educator to tell us something of their system.

We will hear many different viewpoints with all the elements of vigorous debate, healthy to a thriving democracy.

Perhaps as a result of many more Canadians thinking for themselves on these vital issues we shall find a new leadership and a new philosophy of education that will meet the demands of the new age that is fast approaching. We sincerely hope that this first truly Canadian Conference on Education will be a first step in that direction.

Reports from Ottawa

ONE thing Opposition Leader Pearson has stressed is that the Grits must profit by their defeat last June and prove themselves worthy of the people's renewed confidence.

If one approaches Pearson's election manifesto from that angle, one can see that June 10 had a salutary effect on at least this survivor of the once smug and self-satisfied Liberal administration.

* * *

June 10 proved among other things that the people want their taxes cut. So Pearson promises to knock $400,000,000 off income taxes, company taxes and excise taxes.

When George Drew promised $500,000,000 in tax cuts in the 1953 election, plus new and costly spending programs, plus a balanced budget, he overtaxed people's credulity. The voters didn't believe him. Last year John Diefenbaker promised to spend more and tax less on the strength of Liberal "overtaxation" of $500,000,000 a year, and the people believed. But when Diefenbaker assumed office he found nothing like $500,000,000 a year to play with, so his programs and tax cuts have very obviously headed the nation into deficit financing.

Deficits used to be anathema to the Liberals. But again Pearson has learned. "The theory of deficit budgeting is implicit," he said, in his program of big tax cuts and big increases in government spending. The government has to run in the red "to give the economy a lift and put people back to work."

* * *

How much of a revolution in Liberal thinking this program represents may be judged by recalling the words Louis St. Laurent applied to a remarkably similar Tory program less than nine months ago—at London, Ont., on May 16:

"The sort of government you are being promised," St. Laurent said, "is the sort of government Canada literally cannot afford. Any commonsense fiscal policy for Canada requires, first of all, a resolute refusal to give in to the almost frantic, often ill-advised, usually ill-timed and frequently extravagant demands of opposition parties—for such demands will at once force federal taxes upward."

* * *

One can note cynically that the Grits were "in" then; now they're out. One can argue that economic conditions have changed — although the secret, pessimistic economic report to the Liberal cabinet last March tends to undermine this argument.

Or one can conclude that Pearson has accepted the verdict of the people last June as right, and also its converse, that the Liberals last June were wrong, and has gone on from there to formulate a program for national service.

There will be disagreement as to whether it is that or simply a vote-getting gimmick. But whatever it is, he has scuttled the Liberals chance to damn the Tories for plunging the country into debt.

* * *

An embarrassing weakness of the Liberal program is that people will ask: "If the Grits are in favor of tax cutting and all those other promises Pearson has made, why didn't they do these things when they were in power?"

However, any embarrassment the Liberals suffer on this account will not only be merited, but will be more than balanced by the fact that the program is a positive one.

Pearson could have elected to fight the election on a return to Liberal prosperity. "You never had it so good as when the Grits were in." "Tory times mean hard times," St. Laurent's "common sense fiscal policy" instead of Diefenbaker and debts.

But this would be a negative, turn-back-the-clock approach. Pearson may not win the election with his program, but he does well to look forward, not back.

The Packsack

Modern Workmanship

By GREGORY CLARK

ONE of my neighbors has just bought a new "low-priced" car and he is furious. Low-priced: that is, somewhere between $2,500 and $3,500, which is the amount a million Canadians make in a year for all their work.

He brought me over to see it. The trunk lock has been put on crooked and doesn't work. The chromium strip along one side of the car has been fastened badly and does not conform to its line. One door has to be slammed three times to shut it. The small knob on the handle under the seat for shifting the seat forward or back fell off in his hand the second time he used it. And so on.

* * *

It is not the great corporation that makes the car he is mad at. It is the workers in the factory. "You'd think," he says, "a bunch of apprentices threw this car together!"

The question is: do automotive workers buy cars the way we do, just going to the dealers and taking what comes?

Or have they some secret symbol they chalk onto a car, as it comes along the assembly line, which means: "This one is for Bill"—and everybody along the line does a good job for a brother?

* * *

If not, what are the feelings of an automotive worker when the knobs fall off, when catches won't catch, when doors won't close, window handles jam, upholstery pops loose, and so forth?

Of course, we must remember that we have just come through a 15-year period in which the emphasis has been, for most of us, not so much on what we give to our job, but what we get out of it.

On the Record

Middle East Position Crumbling

BY DOROTHY THOMPSON

IN framing a policy to be pursued in any area, the prerequisites for success are the most careful and objective analysis of all pertinent factors, the avoidance of self-deceit, firm resistance to becoming the instrument of interests antagonistic to one's own, and dismissal of expectations to achieve by peaceful means what can only be realized by war.

* * *

In the Middle East none of these prerequisites has been observed, and America's position there has been steadily crumbling. Since the Middle East is in three respects the world's most critical area—a strategical crossroads, the source of the world's greatest reserves of oil, and the indispensable waterway for Western trade — the collapse of American Middle East policy would mean decline to the status of a second or third-class power.

On this conclusion, at least, there is no disagreement.

* * *

What factors are operating in the Arab Middle East? Can they be exploited in our favor, or at least not to our disadvantage? Are we deceiving ourselves? Are we pursuing American interest? Are we willing to go to war, and if so what are the hazards?

The outstanding factor operating is Arab nationalism. Whatever attitude the governments of the Arab states may take, pro-Western, neutralist, or pro-Soviet, the people of the Arab world have long been imbued with the hope of achieving strength and independence through unity. If we think this is Communist-inspired we are deceiving ourselves.

* * *

Israel, France and Britain attempted to quench the rising tide by going to war. Assuming that Arab nationalism is incompatible with their interest, they were perfectly logical. But they failed to consider several factors: the UN charter, the opinion of all Afro-Asia, and the position that would be taken by the Soviet Union. When what was conceived as a minor punitive expedition threatened to become a world conflagration, the United States refused co-operation and the venture failed.

At that moment the United States had enormous prestige which it could have exploited advantageously. For there is another factor — namely, that Arab nationalism is as severely threatened by dependency on Russia as it would be by dependency on any other great power, and the economic life of the whole area is tied to the West.

* * *

But what have we done and gone on doing?

Our government, backed by most of the press, has consistently treated Egypt as an enemy. We stopped the operation of CARE, which was helping to feed the country's long-exploited and desperate millions. We froze Egyptian funds in the United States, an act never before performed against a country with which we were at peace.

Right now Egyptian businessmen are here — men about as pro-Soviet and pro-Communist as Charles Wilson—trying to buy wheat and medical supplies with Egypt's own dollars, and this normal commercial transaction has been refused. Why?

* * *

We have poured military and economic aid into Communist Yugoslavia and are now giving economic aid to Communist Poland. Nasser is anti-Communist to the core. But if we won't let him buy the essentials of life here, where will he turn?

And if he has accepted Russian aid, so have our Middle East allies, Turkey and Pakistan.

We have tried to line up other Arab states against Egypt and Syria: Lebanon, Jordan, Iraq, Saudi Arabia. Is that likely to succeed for any time?

I should say it had not a chance of succeeding! Apart from Lebanon, these countries are kingdoms whose rulers certainly will not join a "United Arab State" that is a republic. But no Arab army will fight another Arab army, and on that I will risk a flat prediction. If the kingdoms unite outside the Egypt-Syrian association it will be to achieve greater bargaining power in associating with it. And since Nasser is flexible, he will probably accept a loose federal association, or possibly several.

* * *

At any rate, how can the United States control events?

By playing King Canute?

By war?

Even if the Soviets did not intervene do we want to be drawn into such quicksands as Algeria and Cyprus?

And for what purpose or interest would we fight?

Letters to the Editor

Good Government?

Regarding Mrs. Josephine Henderson's letter of Feb. 12 in which she lauds the great Liberal Party, that gave us good government for 22 years: What about the pipeline, and what about C. D. Howe's famous line, "Who's going to stop us?" and the $6 for old-age pensions, and the raised tax exemptions we did not get?

Good government? Well, I'll take Mr. Diefenbaker's poor record, of almost a year in Ottawa, as Mrs. Henderson terms it, any old day in preference to the great Liberal Party. John Diefenbaker will be in for a long time after the next election.

JOHN DEEDS.

Foul Bay Road, Victoria, B.C.

Election Unnecessary

There was no need whatever of calling another election at this time. If one newly elected prime minister had kept the promises made previous to the last election, he would have had the whole-hearted support of the CCF members, and could have sailed along in comfort for another four years. With the support of the CCF members the Conservative government had a comfortable majority to carry on with. Now that they have failed to check the high cost of living and to combat the serious unemployment situation, surely seems unreasonable to expect further support.

"Let us not forget that during the last war we had controlled prices and full employment. If laws can be put into effect to win wars, same can be applied in peacetime to provide security, peace and comfort for our people.

J. MITCHELL.

4012 Raymond Street, Victoria, B.C.

Not Discouraged

Determination to remain as prime minister, despite a crushing byelection defeat for the Conservatives while he was on a 38-day, 30,000-mile Commonwealth tour, was proclaimed by Harold Macmillan upon his arrival home yesterday. Defeat in Rochdale, where the government candidate ran a poor third behind Labor and Liberal candidates, was "disappointing, but I am not discouraged," the prime minister said. "I do not intend, if I have the support of my colleagues in Parliament, to abandon our task. Remember, in war or politics, the single engagement does not settle the whole campaign."

Sommers Case Adjourned

Limited, H. W. Gray and John Gray. Others charged are B.C. Forest Products Limited, D. D. Schultz and C. D. Schultz and Company Limited.

SOMMERS ABSENT

Mr. Sommers, who resigned his cabinet portfolio but retains his Rossland-Trail legislative seat as a Social Credit member, was not in the crowded courtroom for the third day of the hearing. With the consent of Magistrate Orr he is attending the legislature sitting in Victoria.

The Crown has more than 700 documents it seeks to enter as evidence in the case, which is expected to continue through most of next week. It was adjourned Friday until Tuesday to permit time for copies to be made of documents requested by defence counsel.

Mr. Nicholson indicated the defence wanted study by a handwriting expert of certain of the documents.

DANIELS REITERATES

Introduction of the signed statements followed completion of testimony by Trevor Daniels, former chief financial officer of B.C. Forest Products Limited. He testified Thursday and reiterated in evidence yesterday that the late president of the company, Hector Munro, had told him a $30,000 payment the company made to Pacific Coast Services was to go "all or in part" to Mr. Sommers.

At one point D. McK. Brown, counsel for B.C. Forests Products, accused Mr. Daniels of "hating" Mr. Munro, who died suddenly last December. Mr. Daniels denied it.

"YOU HATED HIM"

"I suggest you hated him," suggested Mr. Brown.

"That is an absolute fabrication," replied Mr. Daniels.

"You resented the fact he had been made president of the company."

"I certainly did not," the witness replied.

Mr. Daniels, who said he resigned his position after a row with Mr. Munro over payments by the company to Pacific Coast Services and the Schultz Company, at one point accused Angelo Branca, counsel for Mr. Sommers, of "trying to bully me."

He said he could not remember the exact details of his conversations with Mr. Munro. Told by Magistrate Orr to answer as best he could, he said Mr. Munro told him arrangements had been made to secure a forest management licence but that $30,000 was to be paid.

Mr. Munro had desired, he said, "that Sommers get the whole of the $30,000 but he probably couldn't because someone would have to pay taxes on it."

He said he told Mr. Munro he would have nothing to do with the deal. But subsequently two $15,000 cheques were paid over to Pacific Coast Services. A Mr. Wick Gray, a member of that firm, was "to be used as an intermediary" to pass the money along to the then minister.

DESTINATION UNKNOWN

Under cross-examination Mr. Daniels said he didn't actually know the final disposition of $2,50 which, he testified Mr. Munro had told him, was to pay Mr. Sommers' travelling expenses on a trip to Toronto. Nor could he say for certain that Pacific Coast Services had not performed some legitimate service to B.C. Forest Products for the $30,000 paid it.

He said that at no time had Mr. Munro indicated there was "anything wrong" with his relationships with the Schultz Company, though Mr. Daniels had questioned one payment to be made to them as extraordinarily high.

Only other witness of the day was Percy Church, president of Church Sawmills Ltd., of Willow River, B.C. He testified that his company had dealings with the Schultz Company for work in connection with an application for a forest management licence.

He had no complaint about their work for the money they received. Their charges were "pretty well in line" with what would have been paid elsewhere.

Mountain Blast May End Slides

VANCOUVER (CP) — Blasting of heavy snow deposits next week in the Glacier, B.C. area may lead to the elimination of devastating snowslides in the Rockies, a CPR spokesman said Thursday.

Washington Scandal

'Fixed' Official Wants to Reply

WASHINGTON (UP) — Accused Federal Communications Commissioner Richard A. Mack asked House investigators yesterday for an early chance to deny "unsubstantiated" charges against him. They promptly promised him a chance to testify early next week.

Rep. Oren Harris, chairman of a subcommittee investigating the FCC and five other big government regulatory agencies, said not only would the group hear Mack's side the of the story but will call "all witnesses necessary" to get the facts.

Mack, accused by ousted subcommittee counsel Bernard Schwartz of taking $2,650 from a "fixer" in a contested television channel award, told Harris by letter he was "confident" that when all the evidence is in the subcommittee will find the charges "without foundation."

"I have this morning communicated with the office of Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and stated that it is my desire to co-operate with him or his representatives at any time in every way possible," said Mack.

Fund Goal Closer

Victoria Gives UBC $90,000

University of British Columbia [illegible] climbed to $5,721,154, which is 72.6 per cent of its $7,500,000 objective, Paul E. Cooper, general chairman, announced in Vancouver.

Fifteen hundred students will canvass Vancouver Monday night.

The Victoria total is $90,000 so far, said Victoria area chairman J. Stuart Keate.

Heads of divisions will meet in the Union Club at 4.30 p.m. Monday to plan the rest of the campaign.

"We hope to wind it up by the end of the month," Mr. Keate said.

A separate branch will handle gifts from doctors, dentists and lawyers. Dr. Gordon Grant is in charge of the doctors' canvass; Dr. Alan Daysmith, dentists'.

Many persons who never attended university are making donations, in the hope that their children will have the chance.

The Voice of One

'Man Is Dizzy, Afraid'

By REV FRANK S. MORLEY

Tom Allan of Glasgow, one of the world's renowned evangelists, second only to Billy Graham, is coming to Calgary. What does the Council of the Church expect? A vast emotionalism? A return to the churches? Converts crowding the aisles? I think not.

The men responsible for his visit are too intelligent not to recognize the need for a profound evangelism that will deal with the fundamental problems of our contemporary life. No longer does man live in a simple, neat little earth-centred world. Man looks out into an "infinite" abyss, a universe which has no boundaries, inhabited by hundreds of millions of worlds. He is dizzy and afraid.

Evangelism must speak to our psychopathic society, where the actual insanity rate mounts like a thermometer in the summer's sun, in an anarchy of values, the disintegration of megalopolis, the dessicated, dissipated, disordered, and depersonalized art forms, and where the only undisputed good is "a high standard of living." Can this evangelism influence the power and morality of our business and political society?

Evangelism must speak to men who live in a world which will end, perhaps soon, by some catastrophic event, as Einstein warned us—and the Bible. It must speak to the "faceless man" who has been trivialized and exploited by statism and scientism; who feels that what he thinks and does makes no difference. So he tries "to get away from it all" by alcoholism, cultural escapism, suicide, or surrender to some national or economic hysteria as Nazism or Marxism.

Evangelism must speak to new power groups of businessmen, farmers, laborers, and teachers, and the rest, especially as they strive to develop machinery for political action. Nor can the church remain remote from the ethical implications of welfare and totalitarian states.

Evangelism must deal with mass communications such as radio and television which increasingly exclude religion and develop spiritually debilitating and brainwashing programs.

Our society is one in which a service club can be considered a valid alternative to the Christian Church!

Evangelism must give men faith in the history of mankind and meaning in life. Thus evangelism must declare God and His purpose. It must reveal the Kingdom of God with foundations which cannot be shaken for its realities are spiritual and its destiny eternal.

In City Churches Sunday

'Old Hymn Night' At First United

Evening service at First United Church will take the form of an "Old Hymn Night" Sunday.

Because previous hymn-singing services have been so popular, the church decided to hold another this Sunday and church attendance is expected to be 750 to 1,000. The service is open to all denominations.

Fred McGregor will lead the congregational singing and Mrs. Roberta Wood will be organist.

In the morning, a 100-man detachment from HMCS Naden will attend the service and guest preacher will be Command Chaplain Ivan R. Edwards.

His sermon topic will be "Beaux and Arrows."

As well as being Naval Sunday at First United, it will also be Friendship Night for all people from the Maritimes. Residents of Victoria and visitors in the city from the Maritime provinces are invited to attend the evening service at 7.30 p.m. and the coffee hour in Fellowship Hall, 935 Balmoral Avenue later.

* * *

Rev. A. C. Forrest, editor of the United Church Observer, will be guest preacher at the morning service in Metropolitan United Church Sunday and at the evening service in Esquimalt United Church.

Rev. Dr. F. E. H. James will speak on "The Eyes of the Heart" at the evening service in Metropolitan United.

* * *

Annual Prairie Night will be held at Centennial United Church Sunday. At the evening service, Rev. Douglas B. Carr will continue his sermon series on the subject, "Old Testament Characters with Modern Application."

In the morning, Mr. Carr will preach on "On Being Different."

* * *

Rev. A. P. Horsfield, rector of All Saints' Church in Esquimalt, will preach at the 11 a.m. service in Christ Church Cathedral Sunday.

In the evening, Dean Brian Whitlow will conduct filmstrip instruction on "The Litany."

* * *

Missionary work will be emphasized at Emmanuel Baptist Church services Sunday.

The Pastor, Rev. Alvin C. Hamill, will preach on "Why Support Missions?" in the morning and in the evening, D. E. Smith and P. D. Kelly will speak on "Canadian Baptists in Bolivia and Angola."

The Voice of One

'Man Is Dizzy, Afraid'

By REV FRANK S. MOBLEY

Tom Allan of Glasgow, one of the world's renowned evangelists, second only to Billy Graham, is coming to Calgary. What does the Council of Churches expect: A vast emotionalism? A return to the churches? Converts crowding the aisles? I think not.

The men responsible for his visit are too intelligent not to recognize the need for a profound evangelism that will deal with the fundamental problems of our contemporary life. No longer does man live in a simple, neat little earth-centred world. Man looks out into an "infinite" abyss, a universe which has no boundaries, inhabited by hundreds of millions of worlds. He is dizzy and afraid.

Evangelism must speak to our psychopathic society, where the actual insanity rate mounts like a thermometer in the summer's sun, in an anarchy of values, the disintegration of megalopolis, the dessicated, dissipated, disordered, and depersonalized art forms, and where the only undisputed good is "a high standard of living." Can this evangelism influence the power and morality of our business and political society?

Evangelism must speak to men who live in a world which will end, perhaps soon, by some catastrophic event, as Einstein warned us—and the Bible. It must speak to the "faceless man" who has been trivialized and exploited by statism and scientism, who feels that what he thinks and does makes no difference. So he tries "to get away from it all" by alcoholism, cultural escapism, suicide, or surrender to some national or economic hysteria as Nazism or Marxism.

Evangelism must speak to new power groups of businessmen, farmers, laborers, and teachers, and the rest, especially as they strive to develop machinery for political action. Nor can the church remain remote from the ethical implications of welfare and totalitarian states.

Evangelism must deal with mass communications such as radio and television which increasingly exclude religion and develop spiritually debilitating and brainwashing programs.

Our society is one in which a service club can be considered a valid alternative to the Christian Church!

Evangelism must give men faith in the history of mankind and meaning in life. Thus evangelism must declare God and His purpose. It must reveal the Kingdom of God with foundations which cannot be shaken for its realities are spiritual and its [illegible] eternal.

In City Churches Sunday

'Old Hymn Night' At First United

Evening service at First United Church will take the form of an "Old Hymn Night" Sunday.

Because previous hymn-singing services have been so popular, the church decided to hold another this Sunday and church attendance is expected to be 750 to 1,000. The service is open to all denominations.

Fred McGregor will lead the congregational singing and Mrs. Roberta Wood will be organist.

In the morning, a 100-man detachment from HMCS Naden will attend the service and guest preacher will be Command Chaplain Ivan R. Edwards.

His sermon topic will be "Beaux and Arrows."

As well as being Naval Sunday at First United, it will also be Friendship Night for all people from the Maritimes. Residents of Victoria and visitors in the city from the Maritime provinces are invited to attend the evening service at 7.30 p.m. and the coffee hour in Fellowship Hall, 935 Balmoral Avenue later.

★ ★ ★

Rev. A. C. Forrest, editor of the United Church Observer, will be guest preacher at the morning service in Metropolitan United Church Sunday and at the evening service in Esquimalt United Church.

Rev. Dr. F. E. H. James will speak on "The Eyes of the Heart" at the evening service in Metropolitan United.

★ ★ ★

Annual Prairie Night will be held at Centennial United Church Sunday. At the evening service, Rev. Douglas B. Carr will continue his sermon series on the subject, "Old Testament Characters with Modern Application."

In the morning, Mr. Carr will preach on "On Being Different."

★ ★ ★

Rev. A. P. Horsfield, rector of All Saints' Church in Esquimalt, will preach at the 11 a.m. service in Christ Church Cathedral Sunday.

★ ★ ★

Missionary work will be emphasized at Emmanuel Baptist Church services Sunday.

The Pastor, Rev. Alvin C. Hamill, will preach on "Why Support Missions?" in the morning and in the evening, D. E. Smith and P. D. Kelly will speak on "Canadian Baptists in Bolivia and Angola."

Brotherhood Week Opens On Sunday

Sunday will mark the opening of Brotherhood Week sponsored by the Canadian Council of Christians and Jews.

During the coming week, service clubs, churches, schools, universities and other groups across Canada will hold special celebrations with many using the theme of Brotherhood Week, "That People Shall Live As One Family of Man."

Dr. Rowell Going South

Dr. J. B. Rowell of Central Baptist Church leaves this week for Los Angeles. He has again been invited to lecture at the Los Angeles Baptist College and Seminary and will give 10 lectures on "Church History and Doctrine — Ancient, Medieval and Modern." He will also give 14 Bible expositions in the Baptist churches of the area.

Gulf Island Assessment

Island Owner Fights 365-Per-Cent Boost

NANAIMO — An increased land assessment amounting to 365 per cent above last year's assessment is being fought by R. E. Nicoll of Breakwater Island.

Mr. Nicholl's appeal is being considered by the court of revision which sat in Nanaimo this week.

He said that it affects six other islands in his group, south of Gabriola, and others in the vicinity of Mudge Island on the west.

OWNED BY FAMILY

Breakwater Island, which has been in Mr. Nicoll's family for some 25 years—his father is buried there—consists of about 75 acres near Silva Bay.

He said in the court of revision that small islands should receive lower assessments than the mainland. He contended that while his assessment had been boosted, waterfront assessment on neighboring Gabriola has remained static.

ANCIENT TOOLS

Metal saws have been unearthed from graves at Kish, one of the more important ancient cities of Sumer.

Commission to Probe Clerk's Suspension

CAMPBELL RIVER—An open meeting of the Campbell River village commission will be held at 4 p.m. today to investigate the suspension of village clerk John A. Stephenson.

Mr. Stephenson was suspended by commission chairman Joseph Bundy during a heated meeting Thursday when three commissioners stormed out of the meeting.

Vancouver Island Municipal Officers' Association will discuss the clerk's suspension when it meets in Victoria next week.

First Canadian Study

Researchers Leave To Hunt Fur Seals

NANAIMO — First Canadian group to begin research on Pacific fur seals left Departure Bay biological station Thursday for a three-week cruise of waters off Barkley Sound.

The group will initiate a program which calls for a Canadian quota to catch 500 to 750 fur seals this year.

Seals will be hunted on the surface of the ocean, a form of sealing strictly prohibited to any but authorized scientific personnel and aboriginal natives of Canada, Alaska and Aleutian Islands.

Sight of Eye Lost By Sooke Driver

NANAIMO—E. H. Beckman of Sooke, lost the sight of an eye in a two-car collision just south of here yesterday morning, but was lucky to escape with his life.

The cars met head-on near the Cedar cut-off. Damage amounted to about $5,000.

Driver of the second vehicle, Robert Anderson of North Burnaby, received leg injuries. Both were detained in Nanaimo General Hospital.

Late yesterday, Mr. Beckman's condition was described as "fairly satisfactory" and that of Mr. Anderson "satisfactory." Both were driving alone.

Defence Workers Embrace Comox

A new branch of the National Defence Employees' Association has been formed at the RCAF base at Comox, provincial vice-president and organizer J. E. Carey announced yesterday.

Driver's Bail $5,000

DUNCAN—Robert Steele, 25, of Port Alberni, driver of a car which crashed into a truck, fatally injuring the two travelling companions, was arrested Thursday night and charged with criminal negligence after leaving hospital here. He was remanded yesterday on $5,000 bail until Feb. 25. Murray Bethune, 26, and Bohdan Bodnar, 30 died following the accident Jan. 31, six miles north of here.

Tuck Elected CARS Head

D. S. Tuck was elected president of the Victoria branch of the Canadian Arthritis and Rheumatism Society at its annual meeting Thursday.

Elected vice-presidents were C. L. Snyder and Mrs. Bruce Humber. Mrs. Ernest Evans will continue as honorary secretary and T. L. McMaster as honorary treasurer.

Backboard Control Pays Off

Control of the backboards proved a major factor last night as Victoria College Vikings entered the final of the annual inter-scholastic basketball tournament with a 51-41 win over Royal Roads at Victoria High School. Here Ken McCulloch (6) and Jack Showers (8) of Vikings go high in the air to pull down a rebound. Smith (12) and Connor (23) of the Cadets and Lance Finch (7) of the Vikings await results.—(Colonist photo by Bud Kinsman.)

Ex-Cougars Have Big Night—Canucks on Tap Here Tonight

Vancouver	51	33	16	2	178	129	68
N. Westminster	54	30	23	1	175	165	61
Seattle	52	24	25	3	165	172	51
VICTORIA	51	12	37	2	151	221	26

Last night's scores: VICTORIA 4 at Seattle 5; New Westminster 3 at Vancouver 2.

Next games tonight: Vancouver at VICTORIA; Seattle at New Westminster.

Ex-Cougars Blinky Boyce and Don Chiupka played major roles at Seattle last night as Seattle Americans edged Victoria Cougars, 5-4, to extend their third-place margin to 25 points in the western division of the Western Hockey League.

Boyce and Chiupka, playing on a line with Rudy Filion, set Filion up for the winning goal at 16.32 of the third period. Boyce also had two goals and Chiupka, while he didn't score against the Cougars as he usually does, did collect three assists.

It was the third straight loss on the road for the Cougars, who return to Memorial Arena for a game against the league-leading Vancouver Canucks tonight at 8.

CANUCKS LOSE

Canucks had their league lead cut to seven points at Vancouver last night, as Pat Hannigan scored with 32 seconds remaining to give New Westminster Royals a 3-2 victory.

Boyce got both his goals in the first period and Stan Baliuk scored once for the Cougars. Baliuk got his second of the night and Eddie Dorohoy his 30th of the season to put the Cougars ahead, 3-2, in the second period.

However, Bill MacFarland and Gord Sinclair sent Seattle into the lead again. Dennis Olson scored his 20th goal of the season to tie and set the stage for Filion's winning marker.

At Vancouver, rookie Ron Hutchinson tied the score at 2-2 for the Canucks at 14.55 of the third period. He crashed into the net as he scored, spraining an ankle, and is expected to be out for at least two games.

Vancouver's other goal went to Ed MacQueen. Max McNab and Gordie Fashoway scored for New Westminster.

Speaking Briefly

Campanella's Legs Remain Paralyzed; Jenkins Keeps World Skating Honors

Catcher Roy Campanella remains cheerful and hopeful in a Glen Cove, N.Y. hospital, but there is growing concern among doctors that he will not regain the use of his legs.

Campanella, who suffered a broken neck and temporary paralysis in a car crash Jan. 28, had appeared on the road to recovery as he regained feeling in the upper part of his body. However, for days now he has had no feeling from the chest down, and passage of the paralysis seems to have stopped.

If the fading of paralysis has stopped permanently, Campanella will be bed-ridden for life. If it resumes, he will walk again. Doctors say they can only sit and hope.

David Jenkins of Colorado Springs, ignoring a pulled ankle muscle, used every trick in the skating book in Paris yesterday to retain the men's world figure-skating championship with a near-faultless performance.

Jenkins gave a spectacular free skating exhibition to beat out Tim Brown of California, who had the advantage over the champion in Thursday's compulsory figures.

Carol Heiss of Ozone Park, N.Y., winner of the women's singles for the last three years had a commanding 35-point lead over Ingrid Wendl of Austria and appeared assured of another crown.

Best Canadian performance came in the dance figure-skating championships. Geraldine Fenton of Hamilton and William MacLachlan of Toronto placed second to June Markham and Courtenay Jones of England for the second straight year.

Award Slip Pointed Out

SALMON ARM, B.C. (CP)—Teachers and school board trustees held an extraordinary joint meeting here Thursday to consider the possibility of having an arbitration award set aside.

Vancouver Ald. Tom Alsbury, a member of the arbitration board, disclosed earlier in the day he failed to thoroughly check figures in a salary award for Salmon Arm teachers, "owing to incomplete information.

"There was an error of calculation which I did not notice."

The board awarded the teachers increases averaging 5 per cent.

Ontario Rink Decided For Brier Playdowns

Ontario last night became the sixth province to decide its representative for the Canadian curling championships, which will be played at Victoria's Memorial Arena, March 3-7, but defending champion Matt Baldwin of Edmonton ran into a bit of trouble in the Alberta finals.

Ontario will be represented by a rink skipped by Murray Roberts of the Unionville Curling Club, about 20 miles from Toronto.

Roberts' rink, which includes veteran Andy Grant and his son, Ray Grant, as well as George Rumney, won its Brier chance last night with a thrilling 5-4 win over Jack Eccles of Gbelph.

The elder Grant skipped the Ontario entry in the 1955 Brier playdowns at Regina, and Ray was one of the rink.

BALDWIN BREAKS EVEN

In Alberta, where four rinks are playing a double-draw knockout, all four were still in the running after the first two rounds.

In the first competition, Baldwin scored four on the 11th end to come from behind and defeat Art Simpson of Bassano, southeast Alberta finalist, 9-6. At the same time, Gordon Kerr's Peace River champions from Grande Prairie edged past Horace Argue of Yellowknife, Yukon winners, 8-7.

But Baldwin couldn't handle Argue in the second competition and was upset, 10-9, when the Northerners came from behind in an exciting rally. Simpson stayed alive with a 14-10 win over Kerr to set up a certain playoff.

Baldwin and Kerr and Simpson and Argue meet in the knockout finals with the winners meeting tomorrow afternoon.

In Saskatchewan, Gordon Grimes of Eston took a 10-7 win from Harold Horeak of Regina in the best-of-three final between the northern and southern champions.

Grimes, who is supported by Jack Sutherland, Sid Gardiner and Stew St. John, pulled away from a 4-4 tie with one on the seventh and three on the eighth. The Eston rink had an edge most of the way but fine shot-making by Horeak kept the Reginans close. Harold Clayton, Don Micheimore and Bill Jones curled in front of Horeak.

Bob Lahaie and his rink from Cap-de-la-Madeleine could have won the Quebec championship last night but stumbled to its first loss, and a playoff may be necessary. Ken Welson, last year's champion, was eliminated when he lost to Lahaie yesterday afternoon.

No reports were available yesterday on play in Northern Ontario and New Brunswick.

Vikings Meet Totems In Tournament Final

Victoria College Vikings and Victoria High School Totems reached the final of the annual Inter-Scholastic basketball tournament last night as the defending champions downed Royal Roads, 51-41, and the Totems trounced Oak Bay, 49-31, at Victoria High gym.

Vikings and Totems clash in the final tonight at 8.30, and the Bays and Cadets play for third place at 7.30.

Royal Roads threw a tough zone defence at the Vikings, but Bill Garner's club finished strongly in the second half to win.

Oak Bay also tried a zone which the Totems, paced by Daryl Lorimer with 17 points, had little trouble cracking.

In exhibition play at Esquimalt High last night, the host Dockers defeated Ladysmith, Mid-Island champions, 46-13, and Mt. Douglas edged Belmont, 42-40.

Last night's scores: New York 3 at Chicago 1.

Next games, today: Montreal at Boston (afternoon televised game); Detroit at Toronto.

CHICAGO — Andy Bathgate and Lorne Worsley, a pair of jinxes for Chicago Black Hawks, were up to their usual tricks here last night as New York Rangers defeated the Hawks, 3-2, to break their second-place tie with Boston Bruins in the National Hockey League.

Bathgate scored twice in the final period to provide the margin of victory. The goals were his 21st and 22nd of the season, and his seventh and eighth against Chicago. Both came on bullet drives from close in that gave goalie Glenn Hall no chance.

Victory was New York's sixth over the Black Hawks in 11 games, and Worsley made 30 stops to help send the Hawks down to their third straight home-ice defeat and add another game to his amazing record at Chicago.

Bowling Roundup

Zone Playoffs Set In Tenpin Singles

By JIM TAYLOR

Officials of the zone committee have set the dates for the fifth annual Victoria zone tenpin singles championships, first step along the road to the Canadian roll-off.

The 24-game event has been scheduled March 15-16 and 22-23. Twelve games will be rolled at Strathcona Bowling Alleys, six each March 15 and 22 at 8.30 p.m. The other half of the tournament will be played at Gibson's Bowladrome, six games each on March 16 and 23 at 4.30 p.m.

Each block of six games will be rolled across 12 alleys. The event is strictly a scratch affair, with actual total pins for the 24 games deciding the winner. Two top bowlers will advance the B.C. roll-offs.

Entries for the tournament, which is open only to members of the Victoria Tenpin Bowling Association, close March 13.

* * *

Team events in the annual Victoria women's handicap tenpin tournament will be rolled Sunday at Gibson's Bowladrome, and there may be some red faces among the male bowlers when the tourney is over.

Several of the women have been pointing a scornful finger at some of the scores posted in the recent men's tournament, and are convinced that, handicaps being equal, they can come up with a much better effort.

Shifts roll at 12.45 and 9 Sunday. The singles and doubles events are scheduled the following Sunday.

* * *

Harry Smith, one of the most consistent fivepin bowlers around Victoria, came through with a 936 (375, 320) series at Capital City bowling alleys to beat out all comers in fivepin action on Greater Victoria alleys this week.

Gerry Lawrence was next in line at Capital City with 855 (313), while Sam Smitherman had 808, 805 and 790. Other high scorers were Keith Dillabaugh, 789; Tom Butterfield, 767; Seto Sun Ho, 703 (318) and 704; A. Kelly, 700; A. Vezga, 713; Dave Allan, 761; B. Webb, 704; Stan Bell, 732, and Harry Plowman, 731 (317). Notable singles went to Vic Harrison (353), R. Coony (343), C. Bell (305), A. McCallum (328), and N. Wong (366).

It was quieter at Gibson's, where May Wallis, with 822 (301), took honors for the week. She was followed by Cy Wallis, 767; R. Bird, 766; Gordie Ball, 757; Larry Griffen, 746; Cec McRae, 741; Stan Bell, 750; R. Huntley, 714; Sheldon Nipp, 716; Tom Hawkins, 715; Don Corbett, 715; Cy Waters, 711, and E. Smith, 700.

Out at Esquimalt Bowladrome, 17-year-old Gary Roskamp was high man with 849 and 773. Jack Goldie had 825 (331), John Milldemass rolled 822 and 708, and Vern Fillman posted an 802 (338) series.

* * *

Stan Jones rolled 832 (326), Frank White had 757, and Bud Donnell had 739 in the Foresters' fivepin league at Strathcona. Bert Fogden, 753, Vern Brown, 725, and Ernie Poulson, 731, led the Letter-Carriers' league.

* * *

Nick Howard, undoubtedly one of the men to beat in the zone event if he should decide to enter, was high tenpin bowler at Gibson's this week with a 616 (210, 227) series.

Other high commercial league bowlers at Gibson's were John Angus, 558 (217); Norm Gamble, 573 (202, 205); Chuck Bennett, 574 (237); Bruce McDairmid, 564, and Wilbur Webb, 572 (222). Webb, with 538, and Bill Coates, 580 (202, 211) were tops in the Thursday mixed league, and Webb came back to pace the Friday mixed league with 535 (200). B. Eng had 547.

Senior league bowlers were led by Roy Begg, who had 582 (210, 204); Nick Howard, 566 (201); Herb Chandler, 562; A. Hawkins, 563 (243); Ron Wilson, 567 (255); Wilf Smith, 549, and Andy Palmer, 549.

Irene Celius rolled 540 with a 213 single in the women's league at Gibson's, and G. Cornthwaite had 530.

At Strathcona, Wilf Smith 541 (220); Roy Harris, 586 (225); Ted Bowcott, 551 (204); Dick Donaldson, 548 (211); Steve Chamot, 544 (202); Cas Sapala, 565 (204); Art Manson, 542; Cec Dixon, 581 (200), and Roy Elves, 547 (206, 202) led the senior league.

Other high scorers were Vince Wheatley, 557; Tom McKeachie, 541; Rocky Maysmith, 599 (202, 214); Jack Davies, 530; Gordie Rawnsley, 586, and Don McAlpine, 536 (222).

Round Table Favorite

Round Table, leading thoroughbred money winner in the United States last year is a solid favorite to add to his earnings with a victory in the $50,000-added San Antonio handicap at Santa Anita today.

The big four-year old bay top [illegible] day for the 1⅛ mile feature. Main opposition is expected to come from Porterhouse, Terang, winner of the San Antonio last year, and Alfred G Vanderbilt's eight - year - old stakes star, Find.

Meanwhile, 10 Kentucky Derby hopefuls, including the Calumet Farm pair of Kentucky Pride and Tim Tan, are entered in Hialeah Park's $25,000-added Everglades stakes today. The 1⅛ mile race is the last major test for three year olds pointing for the $100,000 Flamingo Stakes March 10.

The Calumet pair will likely go to the post as favorites although top weight of 123 pounds will be shared by Misty Flight and Deadeye Dick.

City Skaters Place Second At Vancouver

VANCOUVER — Eleven-year-old Lorraine Hyne and Leonard Simpson of Victoria placed second yesterday in the bronze dance final at the Western Canada figure-skating championship here.

The youngsters were edged by Carol Calais and Jim Naismith of Vancouver in the final round. Denise Humphries and William Hubbard of Victoria were eliminated, as only four pairs competed in the final.

Vancouver girls grabbed the first six places in the junior ladies' compulsory figures which make up 60 per cent of the total points. The champion skips conclude here tonight with the free-skating events.

Patsy Chesnut of Capilano Winter Gardens placed first with 198.3 points. Berna Pedneault of Victoria placed 10th.

On Thursday, Carol Johnson and Janet Stenstrom of Victoria placed seventh in the pairs events.

BUTLER'S WORKOUT

Butler Brothers soccer club will play an exhibition game against Parksville Sunday at Reynolds Road Park. Game time is 2 p.m.

HUGE BEARS

Alaskan brown bears may stand nine feet tall reaching a weight of 1,500 pounds, twice as big as a grizzly.

Sad Fans Lose Job

SALFORD, England (Reuters) — Twenty-seven workers were fired Friday by a box making factory here for leaving their posts to watch a funeral procession.

It was the funeral of Eddie Colman, one of seven Manchester United soccer players killed in a plane crash at Munich last week.

The workers, 17 women and 10 men, were away from their jobs for about 30 minutes and were told when they returned that they were being dismissed.

"I am a Manchester United fan," one of the women said. "I felt it my duty to watch this funeral procession and pay my homage, no matter what the cost."

VHS Runners In Easy Win On Mainland

BURNABY (Special) — Victoria High School's cross-country team placed five runners in the first 10 here yesterday to score an easy victory in its exhibition two and one-half mile race against South Burnaby and Lester Pearson High Schools.

Glen Haugo of Lester Pearson, present BC high school mile champion, placed first in the race, covering the course in 12 minutes 18 seconds in spite of a driving rain. The next four runners were from Victoria High.

Simon Princenburg was second in 12:53, John Clift came third in 13.04, Jim Robertson was fourth in 13.06, and Monty Vanden was fifth in 13.07. Vic Reeves of South Burnaby was sixth in 13.8, followed by Paille Jensen of Victoria High in 13.9.

The Victoria High squad races again today in Vancouver against St. George's School, Vancouver Technical and Queen Elizabeth High School.

WORLD CATCH

Total world catch of fish, continuing to increase, now is nearing 30,000,000 tons a year.

Nanaimo Meets League Terms

Nanaimo will have a team in the Pacific Coast Summer Soccer League this year, The Daily Colonist [illegible].

Gogi Stewart, the driving force behind the move to get the up-Island centre into the league, reported in a telephone interview that all requirements had been met, and that he was ready to begin forming a club.

Victoria was originally brought into the loop in preference to a Nanaimo entry but when Victoria failed to come up with a sponsor the Nanaimo interests were given until Feb. 16 to come up with an entry.

"We are in officially now," Stewart said. "I received a call from league officials in Vancouver asking if we were ready and I told them we were. We are now in a position where we can meet all conditions the league has set."

Main conditions were a $500 entry fee plus a $200 bond and travelling expenses for visiting teams. A suitable park was also a major factor, but Stewart said last night that Caledonia Park will be ready for use by the time the league is ready to start in April.

TO IMPORT HELP

Stewart is still in the process of lining up his team.

"I had players ready from Vancouver and some from Victoria when we thought we would get in the first time," he stated. "Now I have to start all over, but I know I can come up with a contending team.

"For this first season I figure I will need about 10 imports from Vancouver and Victoria but there are a lot of good boys around here that will benefit from experience and be ready in a season or so.

"Right now, the important thing is that we're in, and can start working."

Rugby Switched

Sunday afternoon's exhibition rugby match between Oak Bay Wanderers and a team of Fiji Islanders from the HMS Suva has been switched from Windsor to Carnarvon Park.

Game time is 2:15.

Trans Canada Advances To New High

MONTREAL (CP) — Prices on the Montreal and Canadian stock exchanges turned stronger Friday in moderate trading.

Dominion Steel stood out with a gain of 2¼ at a new high of 21. Steel of Canada firmed ½ at 19.

Base metals were mixed. Producing mines were also mixed. Other groups were higher. Quebec Natural Gas moved up a point to 2½. Trans-Canada Pipeline 1¼ to a new high of 29¾. Imperial Oil ¼ to 49½. Bank of Nova Scotia a point to 41. Abitibi Paper ¼ to a new high of 28 and Industrial Acceptance ½ to 28¾. Western oils were firm. Pacific Petroleums gained ¼ at 19. Speculative mines were active and generally higher in a 10-cent range.

Losing Run Stops

TORONTO (CP) — The stock market rallied strongly in mid-afternoon Friday to snap a five-session decline.

The advance was sparked by a rally on Wall Street and brokers said the upswing was bound to happen after five days of declining prices. Buying overtook the mid-run of selling which dominated morning trading.

Banks, utilities and papers were strong among industrial advances.

Western oil stocks ran into two points in active Montreal and Trans-Canada Pipe Line.

Senior base metals were fractionally higher at the close after being mixed for most of the day. Falconbridge and International Nickel, trading ex-dividend, each gained ¼. Golds had a few strong gains.

Bralorne Tops Five

VANCOUVER — Bralorne closed strongly at 5.00 and Quatsino was up 2 cents at 21 cents in a generally stronger mining sector.

Basco was active among oils moving ahead to 51 cents.

Industrials showed little change. MacMillan was off a quarter at $26, while Powell River repeated $32.

Steels Show Gains

NEW YORK (UP) — Stocks advanced under the lead of the railroad issues in a more active session.

The rails showed gains ranging to more than a point and their average gained about 1 per cent.

Buying spread throughout the entire list with outside gains running to more than 2 points. Oils perked up as did steels. The latter showed gains running to nearly 3 points in Inland Steel. Drugs and tobaccos contributed to demand. Utilities, aircrafts, insurance issues, motors, building issues provided strong spots.

The recovery evoked some short covering but was considered largely technical after a substantial decline.

General Dynamics was helped by a new contract for atom-powered submarines, a deal with Polaris missiles.

London Stock Prices

LONDON (CP) — Stock market gilt-edged securities were subdued, rails were firm, while coal mining issues showing good gains.

Electric motor and aircraft issues also improved. Textiles were unsettled and shipping shares lost. Dollar stocks were uncertain and oil shares generally lower. South African gold mines improved slightly.

Eyes Froze Shut

Dangling Paratrooper Too Busy for Fear

EDMONTON (CP) — Things happen fast when a man becomes entangled in his parachute equipment and is left dangling behind a transport plane from which troops are jumping.

There's little time to be afraid, Pte Gordon Parker, a 20-year-old paratrooper from Meadow Lake, Sask., said Friday after a harrowing experience in a jumping exercise over Camp Wainwright, 120 miles southeast of here.

Pte Parker was among 320 officers and men of the 2nd Battalion, Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry, who made up an airborne assault force in Exercise Bulldog IV concluded Friday at Wainwright military camp.

EYES FROZEN

He had his eyes frozen shut and his body numbed by the 30-below-zero cold as he dangled at the end of his static line, behind an RCAF Flying Boxcar 1,200 feet above the drop zone Thursday.

Pte Parker escaped without injury, but had a case of nerves following the ordeal, which lasted about five minutes.

He said he followed the sixth man out, jumped and suddenly found himself dangling about 10 feet behind the plane, the line by which his parachute was attached to the aircraft having failed to release when his 'chute was pulled open.

BLOCK, TACKLE

The jumpmaster who first noticed Pte Parker's plight shouted to FO Moore White of Lindsay, Ont., a radio officer. The pilot throttled back to 90 knots and the other five men aboard rigged a make-shift block and tackle drawing Parker closer to the door.

With the help of copilot Flt Lt Bob Lundy, FO White pulled Pte Parker halfway in. "I took a knife and cut his bells, hard to release all his gear. With that gone we eased him in," said FO White.

Gas, Oil Stealing Markets

Heavy upswing in gas and oil production in Western Canada is making big inroads into coal markets, Mines Minister Kenneth Kiernan told the legislature Thursday.

"While the prospects of iron ore reduction may offer a hope to this industry for increased coking coal demands, the only sizeable market appearing on the horizon at the present must be in the export field," he said.

He said in the Peace River area today there were 23 completed oil wells, 128 completed gas wells and 14 suspended wells, with 140 abandoned as non-productive.

Altogether, he reported, some 27,000,000 acres were under exploration permit or lease.

Principal Target For Knives

TORONTO (CP) — A pair of black-jacketed hoodlums Thursday pitched knives at a Toronto High School vice-principal when he dashed into the school's corridors to investigate a commotion.

Alfred W. Fair, vice-principal of Central High school of Commerce, told police the youths threw the knives at him as he entered the corridor. They warned him "don't call police."

Principal R. J. Aitchison said the youths "weren't students of this school" and that no classes were interrupted by the fracas.

Police were holding two teenagers for questioning. They were captured outside the school.

NO. 55—HUNDREDTH YEAR | VICTORIA, BRITISH COLUMBIA, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 1958 | SECOND NEWS SECTION

New Government Machine . . .

. . . Grinds to Early Halt

College MPs Overthrow Liberals

If what happened to the first session of Victoria College's first model parliament yesterday is an omen, Canada may wind up with a slight case of anarchy.

* * *

The minority Liberal government (17 of 44 members) at the college failed to survive the first sitting of the first session and the whole machinery floundered to a flabbergasted fiasco.

* * *

As of some hours later no other party wanted to form a minority government, no two parties could get together to form a majority coalition, and no one wanted a new election.

* * *

Almost the way things look in Ottawa, at times. The constitutional crisis may be resolved today when the "governor-general," Prof. R. T. Wallace, confers with defeated prime minister Lance Finch and the opposition leader, Conservative Janet Gardiner.

* * *

CCF leader Frank Mitchell and Social Credit leader Waldo Skillings Jr. may also be consulted on a solution to the problem which arose after 12 Conservatives, eight CCFers and seven Social Crediters voted solidly against the Liberal 17 on an education bill.

* * *

Second and final day of the session was to be held in two weeks, but it was indicated last night "the whole thing may be dropped."

Which may be fine in the case of a "model" parliament, but hardly the sort of course that could be followed by Mr. Diefenbaker on the national level.

Navy League Chapter

Education Big Target Of IODE Assistance

Educational projects remained the main effort of Navy League Chapter, IODE, according to reports presented at the annual meeting yesterday following a luncheon at the James Bay Hotel.

Sum of $341 spent on education included books and gifts for the adopted school at Moberly Lake, purchase of IODE Centennial Anthology, National Geographic subscription and a history prize for Central Junior High School, and presentation of the $100 Edith Godfrey Beatty bursary to Kenneth Hancock of Rainbow Sea Cadets.

NEEDY HELPED

The DVA Hospital was decorated for special occasions and 150 books were collected for the hospital. Clothing was collected for Municipal Chapter and 4 hampers and gifts were given to needy families.

Money raised during the year by the penny sale, teas, rummage sales and parties totalled $1,508. Disbursements of $1,081 were made to the Rainbow Sea Cadets, post-graduate school in Ontario, Isobel Gulden Jubilee bursary, Alexander Rose fund, Protestant Orphanage, Cerebral Palsy and other donations.

Mrs. R. Shanks was presented with a life membership and four new members brought the chapter's membership to 38.

Mrs. W. F. Mawdsley was re-elected regent. Other officers are: Mrs. J. G. Ness, first vice-regent; Mrs. P. Shanks, second vice-regent; Mrs. W. C. Newton, secretary; Mrs. F. M. Noble, treasurer; Mrs. C. Rea, educational secretary; Mrs. S. Kent, b.s.; Echoes, secretary; Mrs. L. J. Painter, standard bearer; and Mrs. P. E. George, Services at Home and Abroad convener.

Cristabel Pankhurst Dies at 77

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (UP)—Dame Cristabel Pankhurst, famous British suffragette leader, has died at her home here, aged 77.

In England Dame Pankhurst campaigned beside her mother, Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, for women's right to vote, which was granted in 1918. King George V conferred the honor of Dame Commander of the Order of the British Empire for her work.

After coming to the United States in the 1930s, Dame Pankhurst devoted her time and energy to religion.

She was an active member of the Episcopal Church and spoke before many Bible conferences and religious rallies.

Opera Star Slims To Fit Met Roles

NEW YORK (WNS)—Maria Callas, who appeared at the Metropolitan Opera last week as the consumptive Violetta of 'La Traviata,' again demonstrated her triumph over excess poundage. Unlike other hefty sopranos, the New York-born prima donna's slender [illegible] appeared convincingly fragile and romantic.

Yet she weighed in at 255 only five years ago and only banned down her first Metropolitan offer, what was the lead in Madame Butterfly. She herself felt that the delicate Japanese geisha could hardly be played by a prima so [illegible].

Was she fat and how did she accomplish her loss of more than 80 pounds? Maria Callas is a prime example of what weight experts call compulsive eating. Unhappy as a child she consoled herself with such tidbits as a whole pound of cheese at one sitting. When her Greek-born father went back to Athens she was caught by the war and even as she studied voice there she ate little but starches.

It was not until after her happy marriage to Italian businessman Giovanni Battista Meneghini and her first success at La Scala that she "ate like one."

DID NOTHING

Her treatment says when asked what was her diet, "She did nothing. Before she was always a sad person. Now she is glad."

This is quite true in the sense that Maria Callas did not "starve" on a diet. She changed her eating habits altogether from starches and sweets to proteins and fruits and a sad cow became a cut-up [illegible] of her old and a jet-propelled competitor.

Because indoors most glamour days were quite likely as the star prepared for the pathetic Violetta. No [illegible] are [illegible] Maria Callas is a worker eager of parts than probably any other living opera singer.

Her voice climbed and increased in force after she lost dured she claims and yet lady's hot head and energy so important to the stage one of the opera singer became legendary.

'Pancake Batter' Dropped on Fires

CONCORD, N.H. (AP)—A mixture like pancake batter dropped from aircraft is one of the most promising new methods of fighting forest fires, says an official of the U.S. Forest Service.

M. M. Nelson, a deputy assistant chief of the federal agency in Washington, said that by using four pounds of borate with a gallon of water an effective retardant is developed.

Lenten Service Set Wednesday

SPRING REDUCING SERIES. It has been said that the waistline is the barometer of the figure. And so it is.

Many accurately plan your waist reducing, inches and pounds at a glance, degree of weight. You can be regulated [illegible] and head to waist. And [illegible] had it my hopes, should your bust have stopped so much as a half inch this week?

In such a case your first move is a mild diet. Your second, this week, the slimming exercise. Lie on floor with knees bent, soles flat, abdomen retracted and arms out stretched at shoulder level. Leaving hand in waist touch left hand to [illegible] come back to starting position and touch right hand to left. Repeat briskly and without a break 30 times. Then relax and continue for 10 counts more. Enough not guess that in fact make your waist do the work.

With faithful performance the danger of a midriff bulge and weight gains are soon lost.

Life's Ills Forecast 'At Birth?

OMAHA (NAN)—It may be possible to give a newborn babe a physical examination which will warn of sickness the tot will fall prey to years later, even in advanced adulthood.

It sounds incredible, admits Dr. I. Arthur Mirsky of Pittsburgh, but "eventually it will be common practice."

From the early physical examination the doctor will be able to list a variety of ailments and put down "yes" or "no" as to whether the child will suffer from them in later life.

Wonderful, Smooth Dirt

By M. V. CHESNUT, FRHS

Starting seeds indoors can be a tricky business and sometimes a disappointing one. The first planting we put under right shank. It's [illegible] where to get the dirt to put the seeds in.

Soil from the garden is seldom satisfactory for this purpose. Unless it is sterilized it may contain weed seeds and pests or plant diseases of one kind or another of which is even easier. It may be infected with the spores of the damping-off disease which is fatal to baby seedlings.

If you don't have to make boxes or pots to suit one easy access to [illegible] is to buy the ready-mixed potting soil in peat bags at [illegible]

We're putting too much faith on the [illegible] soil with a certain volume texture and water [illegible] There's a soil [illegible] liver pen [illegible] minute in it to get your seedlings away [illegible] ing start. It must [illegible] has been sterilized, and is [illegible] free from pests and disease spores.

If it is necessary to make up your own seed-sowing mixture, it is important to remember that [illegible] the texture of the mixture and [illegible] is perhaps more important [illegible] of peat, sand [illegible]

[illegible] the pain of the hard-coated seed [illegible] coats when [illegible] over-soak or [illegible]

The most useful formula for a seed-sowing mixture was developed [illegible] Experimental Farm, Ottawa. [illegible] Dale James Horticulturist, [illegible] suggested. This calls for two parts good garden loam, sterilized before mixing, one part good loose peat [illegible] part coarse sand, mixed and sifted [illegible] the mixture is [illegible] [illegible] compacted [illegible] and after the [illegible] [illegible] pinch [illegible]

HOME BUILDERS SUPPLIES

GOOD LUCK

Good luck, as they say, is a lazy man's explanation of a worker's success. Looking around these days we see a lot of lucky people at [illegible] making money, buying homes, remodelling old stores and selling them & a once prune turning over properly on a subdivision for a nice living. Yes in spite of all the gloomy talk and pessimistic predictions the lucky guys are making money and you know something, they'll make more because the opportunity is here. Drive around and see the new buildings in progress - make enquirement and activity than for many a month. Why don't you be a lucky guy and share in the opportunities available with available loans and low cost building material.

LUMBER PRICES LOWEST

For many a day and remember that building materials take only 40% of the building costs. Naturally if the building boom continues prices will firm this spring so take advantage of present [illegible]

TV TALK

By Bruce Lowther

Montreal Canadiens and Boston Celtics the two leading teams in their fields, can be seen today. Another item for the sport fan is a CBC telecast of the western Canada figure skating championships. In regular programming, the CBC delayed Perry Como show features Elaine and Mike. Nine new comics, in old movies "High Noon," one of the best of all westerns, make its TV debut [illegible] TV's big week next week – details of the 10 special shows in this column tomorrow.

* * *

CBC and Imperial Oil said yesterday that most NHL playoff games will be shown on the national TV network live. That would include "crucial, Saturday and home" games of the semi-finals and all games of the finals. The network covers all of Canada but B.C. apparently, we'll get the same as usual little or no playoffs.

"Oh, brother! That commercial is a tough act to follow!"

Meanwhile, Canada's privately-owned radio and TV stations have asked the CBC to hold a two-week poll of radio and TV listeners and viewers. The public would be asked if it agrees with CBC that all broadcast giveaways shows should be taboo.

Private broadcasters said they opposed "straight money giveaways," but to ban the giveaways of products would handicap radio in a time of serious national unemployment. CBC decisions which also include the proposed transfer of more shares in CHEK-TV to Bill Rea are due Monday.

In Washington, D.C. the FBI is starting an investigation of charges that FCC members who admonister radio and TV regulations took money wrongfully from TV stations and [illegible]. It now seems certain that even if the FCC is cleared, its proposed test of [illegible] TV may be held up indefinitely.

150 HOUSES FOR SALE

NORTHWESTERN SECURITIES
of Victoria Ltd.
811 YATES AT BROAD 3-6741

"RICH VELVET"
"Rich Velvet" is the only way to describe the lavish surrounding this gentleman's home. Located on Despard Avenue (the street long associated with Victoria's elite). The home will be appreciated by those accustomed to a quality residence. Includes such luxury features as master bedroom with its own facilities, comfortable den and an exceptional kitchen, the kind that makes "cook" happy. Full price for this home is $39,000
Have your solicitor investigate the terms and title and ask him to call Eric A. Macfadyen, 3-8748 or 3-8741.

"Lakefront Property AGAIN"
Surrounded by ½ of an acre of rolling lawns, sandy beach, wharf, change house and outdoor barbecue. This white siding, seven-year-old bungalow has four bedrooms, den, large living room, dining room and electric kitchen, utility and Oil-O-Matic heat. Close to the city. "A Real Home" "Amazing Terms" Full price $16,000
It won't last long, so dial Mrs. V. Roberts now at 3-6741 or 2-1965.

"EXPENSIVE SEAVIEW"
Here is a dandy NHA-built 3-bedroom home that could be built for less elsewhere BUT the view is worth a small fortune. Confidentially, make an offer, these folk are moving soon. Call Mrs. Isabell Wellings, 3-6741 or 7-2789.

"THE BLUE DOOR"
Snuggled on a Saanich hillside, surrounded by a much-loved garden, this 2-bedroom home is just the stuff that dreams are made of. On the practical side, full basement, dining room, wonderful construction and the front door IS painted blue.
Dial Isabell Wellings, 3-6741 or 7-2789.

"UNIQUE FAIRFIELD"
Modern looking stucco semi-bungalow that has a number of unique features that set it apart. Here are a few: large living room-dining room combination with French doors. No steps. 3 bedrooms or 4 and a den. Worth investigating if you are looking for a home or revenue possibilities. Priced to sell, so hurry and phone Mrs. Isabell Wellings, 3-6741 or 7-2789.

"REVENUE GALORE"
If you want to eat, go to a restaurant; if you want to get married, pop the question, if you want to sleep, go to bed. But if it's revenue you are looking for, see Don Bacon. This impressive-looking property, with view of Gorge waterway, shows gross income of $280 per month. On large lot with auto court possibilities. Your equity in your own home will be considered as down payment. Shows 15% net on reduced price $14,900
Don Bacon, 3-6741 or 3-6586.

"EXCHANGE"
Exchange your 4- or 5-room home for this Oak Bay duplex. Lower suite large with 3 bedrooms, living room, dining room, kitchen and utility rented at $80 per month. Upper suite, 2 bedrooms, living room and kitchen. Both suites separate baths. Rent $75 per month. Good buy at only $13,900
Call anytime for further particulars. L. A. Squires, 3-6741, res. 2-2369.

"BRAND NEW"
A beautiful 6-room, full basement, oil-heated home just completed in a close-in city location. Call George Chan at 3-6741, res. 2-8416, and enjoy the comforts of luxurious living. Full price on terms at only $12,800

"OAK BAY NORTH SPECIAL"
Choose your dream home today. 3-room stucco bungalow. Large living room, fireplace, small dining room, electric cabinet kitchen, 4-piece bath, plus utility room on main floor. Oil-O-Matic heat, Landscaped, and carpets—too. Call Elsie Johnston, 2-3655 or 3-6741. With terms $12,850

"LARGE HOME OR REVENUE"
This older-type home has everything one could desire and is in real excellent condition. The arrangement of the rooms gives owner privacy if you need 2, 4 or 5 rooms for yourself. Down payment $2,000. The upstairs suite for rooms takes care of future payments. Phone Harry Hobson, 3-6741 or 2-7828.

"ESQUIMALT"
Half a block to everything, schools, both elementary and high, shopping and transportation. Situated on one of the most beautiful little courts in the city. Very modern bungalow consists of living room, 2 bedrooms, cabinet electric kitchen, has basement with oil-O-Matic heat, attached garage, nice small lot, easy to look after. The amazing part is the price only $10,750
Can be handled with $82 per month including taxes. Be quick to call for this one.
Len LeDrew, 3-6741 or 2-9852.

"CORDOVA BAY"
While siding semi-bungalow on two lots near the beach. Very nice garden, 2 bedrooms, all heat, must be seen to be appreciated. Full price $9750
Terms to suit you. Call Don Harvey, 3-6741 or 2-1185 for the address.

"SUBURBAN"
White stucco cottage in a suburban setting. Attractively landscaped, this 2-bedroom, living room, dining room, full basement, drive-in garage, is an ideal spot for the small family. Can be sold on good terms or discounted for cash. See this now. Full price $9500
Dial Mrs. V. Roberts, 3-6741 or 2-1965.

"GRACIOUS MT. TOLMIE"
Tired of being cramped in a modern "cracker-box" type house? Buy this fine older 4-bedroom home and relax. The kids can have a room of their own and Dad can have a den. Sound good? It is. Full basement, oil heat, plus 4-extra building and "on the square." Priced to sell. Call Mrs. Ruth Squires, 3-6741; res. 2-2369.

"FOR $1000 DOWN"
Enjoy the comforts of home plus an income in this well kept 6-room home. On corner lot in city view location, a real deal. At full price of only $7000
Call Lou Rogers at 3-6741 or home, 4-8282, now.

150 HOUSES FOR SALE

NORTHWESTERN SECURITIES
of Victoria Ltd.
811 YATES AT BROAD 3-6741

"GIFT BOX"
Small gift shop with living quarters for sale at the right price. Interested? Call Mrs. Ruth Squires, 3-6741; res. 2-2369.

"OUTALITTLE"
Fir trees and dogwood dominate this waterfront bide-away home. Features a beautiful rubblestone fireplace and "picture" view windows, a patio, the water. Near enough to the city-school, too, etc. The oil furnace is automatic and the 2 bedrooms are spacious. Long on location and charm and practical, too. Call Mrs. Johnston, 2-5435 or 3-6741.

"HILLTOP HAVEN"
Now you can buy this 3-bedroom home overlooking the entire city. Country seclusion and close to all city conveniences. Full basement with drive-in garage. This is an older well-cared-for home and is now available to you at this very low price of $6950
With a low down payment. Phone now and be the first to see C. L. (Buzz) Fraser, 3-6741 or 3-4335.

"ESQUIMALT UPLAND"
Tree-dotted near old Esquimalt Road, modern stucco bungalow that will make an ideal family home because it's near the best public and high schools in the area, transportation and shopping centre. Only $2,000 to handle, less down if you can make a better monthly payment.
Call Eric Macfadyen, 3-6741 or 3-8748.

"FAIRFIELD BUNGALOW"
This unique 3-bedroom bungalow near the sea and bordering on tidy park, the 16-foot window in the living room overlooks this green parkland and faces south. The drapes are included in the full bargain price. Live in oil-heated comfort now.
Call Maurice N. Smith, to learn convenient close-in address 3-6741 or 3-8477.

"OAKLANDS"
Owners have bought a new house and need to sell the old homestead. Take advantage of this situation and make an offer as to price and try your down payment terms. Details: 1 bedroom, large living room, part basement.
Asking price only $6950
Dial Eric Macfadyen, 3-6741 or 3-8748.

"STRAIGHT UP AND DOWN"
Feature this old-style home designed for the family to eat which it stands. Now look at the price only $6,750 at $1,000 down. See, call Eric A. Macfadyen, 3-6741 or 2-8748, and find out how you can own this 7-room haven. Owner makes it pay by renting upstairs to sister-in-law.

"4 BEDROOMS"
Have just been advertising for 4-bedroom homes. My client has bought one, now have 3 for over. Need 4 bedrooms. Dial 3-6741. Ask for Ruth Squires, res. 2-2369.

"WEEKEND SPECIALS"

1006 NEWPORT
THERE IS DIGNITY AND AN ATMOSPHERE OF FINE QUALITY ABOUT SOLID, WORKMANSHIP IN MANY OF VICTORIA'S SO-CALLED "OLDER" HOMES.
They were built for good family living, the rooms are large and high—the seamed ceilings and fine panelled doors are too costly for today's "built-to-a-price" homes. With a comfortable floor area on two floors, they are economical to heat and taxes are proportionately lower.
We present for your viewing such a home with 4 beautiful living room, dining room 16x13, den TV or reception room, all fine hardwood floors, 4 bedrooms, 4-piece tiled with double closets and 4-piece Pembroke bath. A large full basement with extra plumbing and Oil-O-Matic hot-water heating, and a greenhouse. A very fine home indeed

Juvenile Home Expenses

What Split Fair? Esquimalt Asked

Esquimalt council has been called upon to give a decision on the proposed split among the four Greater Victoria municipalities of operating expenses of the Coldharbor Road juvenile foster home, or an alternative plan.

A letter to this effect will be sent from the home's board.

The proposed agreement provides for the split of the cost of the home on a basis of 80 per cent according to population of the municipalities and 20 per cent according to usage.

"I wish Esquimalt would make some indication of what they think is fair," Oak Bay Coun. F. A. Robinson, board chairman, said Thursday night.

Esquimalt's representative, Coun. W. E. A. Barclay, was not present, having advised the board he had a previous engagement.

Coun. Robinson asked whether the board should be "stinkers" and send them an "ultimatum."

BONN — West German President Theodor Heuss will make an official visit to the United States June 4 to 6. He will be accompanied by Foreign Minister Heinrich von Brentano.

If necessary three municipalities could go ahead with the operation of the home or construction of a new home and Esquimalt be either left to provide its own home, or charged for each juvenile sent to the home, he said.

Asked why so few juveniles are sent to the home from Esquimalt, Saanich juvenile officer Harry Adams said it was the policy of the Esquimalt police chief to turn delinquents over to the custody of their parents, rather than send them to the home.

Copies of the agreement are also to be sent to the other councils.

Rain-Making Efforts To Continue

Cloud-seeding operations in the Campbell River watershed will continue despite a B.C. Research Council report that dripped discouragement on the plan.

B.C. Power Commission spokesmen said yesterday the cloud-seeding operations were in the second year of a three-year contract and would continue until the contract terminated.

The rain-making efforts were instigated to raise the levels of lakes in the Campbell River watershed as part of the power-producing program.

"We feel that the cloud seeding has been of some value in the 600 square miles of the watershed," the power commission said yesterday.

The research council report indicated the effect on rainfall and streamflow in the area had been slight.

Tax Cuts—or Public Works?

Which Way to Jobs?

By NORMAN M. MacLEOD

OTTAWA (BUP) — Underneath the surface similarities of the "auction type" campaigns of both the Progressive Conservatives and the Liberals, political observers are recognizing essential differences of major and even critical importance.

Main difference is in the approach of the two parties to the dominant issue of unemployment.

The Diefenbaker policy proposes an all-out attack by a $450,000,000 program of public works vast enough to provide employment for virtually all jobless while at the same time advancing necessary projects of national development.

The Pearson program, on the other hand, advocates dealing with the problem by a $400,000,000 tax reduction plan. Its theory is that this money, if left in the taxpayers' pockets as spending power, will speedily translate itself into new jobs and a resumption of the upward march of the economy.

WHICH IS BEST?

Since the cost of one plan isn't so much greater than the other as to affect the voters' choice between them, the question is, which plan is the more effective?

On this point the Liberals contend strongly that they have the right answer. They say that both the 1945 and 1954 dips in the United States economy were cured by tax cuts. They point out that the 1945 slash winged the first post-war boom on its way, while the 1954 cut sparked the recent years of greatest prosperity that the North American economy has ever seen.

TAX CUTS NO REMEDY

The answer of the Conservatives is that tax cuts are no remedy for the plight of the worker who needs an immediate pay envelope. A public works program is held to be a faster means of putting the jobless back to work. The fact that the projects undertaken will contribute to the over-all national development is also regarded as a vital consideration.

In the opinion of Parliament Hill observers, the opposite approaches of the two parties to the central unemployment problem is the chief issue of controversy which the campaign has developed so far. It is looked upon as an issue capable of creating a sharp division among the voters.

Cupid Likes Tulips

Victoria's lovers said it with tulips yesterday, rather than roses, city florists reported in a spot check.

One florist suggested the tulips won our because of the permissible pun on the name.

But whether they were tulips, roses or carnations—another popular flower—they were all red. And a veritable mountain of them were sent out.

Reliable estimates run as high as 500 dozen tulips, 400 dozen roses and 250 dozen carnations—a staggering 13,800 blooms, not counting the many thousands more sent out in shades ranging through pink to white.

Flowers weren't the only Valentine's Day present in demand yesterday, either—Valentine cards sold briskly in downtown stores—mainly to men.

One clerk claimed they were mainly employers who had found Valentines from their secretaries but had forgotten to buy them themselves.

Pact Unites Iraq, Jordan

AMMAN, JORDAN (UP) — The youthful kings of Iraq and Jordan signed their countries into a one-flag "Arab Federal Nation" yesterday and named King Feisal of Iraq as its head.

The union will give the two pro-western Arab states a single constitution, federal government, foreign office and army but will permit King Hussein of Jordan and Feisal to retain their crowns as rulers of their countries' internal affairs.

Jail Term Promised

VANCOUVER (CP) — Magistrate Gordon Scott yesterday promised "substantial imprisonment" for a lawyer who admitted 13 charges of forgery, dealing in a forgery and obtaining money by false pretences.

Louis B. Nofield, 37, of Vancouver was remanded a week for sentence. He is charged in connection with a series of worthless agreements for sale of property and mortgages by which he allegedly obtained $11,000.

"I can't think of a more despicable thing for a lawyer to do," the magistrate said.

"A Godsend to Every Health Seeker"
What Thankful Readers Say About This "Master Guidebook" to Lifelong Health
"I did not expect to get so valuable a book free of charge, so you can imagine my surprise and delight." (Mrs. W. R.) "Your HANDY HOME DOCTOR is a real treasure-house of health-building information." (Mr. W. J. H.) "It's a real godsend to every health seeker." (Rev. R. H.) "I find it full of important health hints for my entire family." (Mrs. F. A.) "I call it my book of good health." (Mrs. J. L.)
Many letters contain the remarks, "I just couldn't stop reading it until I finished the last page." This book brings a message of real hope and practical help to all who suffer from the symptoms of easily preventable or naturally correctable chronic ailments. It clearly explains nature's way to better health and longer life."
This 132-page HEALTH-FINDER is FREE
Why is this book offered free? The "HANDY HOME DOCTOR" is a 132-page lavishly illustrated paper-bound book that contains as much usable and vitally interesting information as any $3.50 health book. The first five minutes you have it in your hand will convince you of that. Then why this special offer? Because it is the best means we have of convincing you of the truth about Natural Health Principles—and of explaining the great merits of herbal remedies, protective food supplements and corrective eating. Only 30,000 copies are still available for free distribution before our 23rd annual Goodwill Advertising offer expires.
